

Just as the tide was a-flowing

[A]

[B]

Intro for singing

Pickup bar at start of Hey

A 4(ABAB) A

R Swaine, 20/11/11

- A Intro (omit if singing tune as intro)
- A Figure 1
- B Sticking
- A Hey (begins with long pickup)
- B Sticking
- A Back-to-Back
- B Sticking
- A Hey (begins with long pickup)
- B Sticking
- A Rabbits (sideways back-to-back)
- B Sticking
- A Hey (begins with long pickup)
- B Sticking
- A Cross-over
- B Sticking
- A Hey (begins with long pickup)
- B Sticking
- A Cast off & exit

JUST AS THE TIDE WAS A-FLOWING

We will sing just this one verse at the beginning of the dance “Tides”.

One morning in the month of May,
When all the birds were singing,
And every bush and every tree
With merry notes were ringing,
I saw a lovely lady stray
Across the mead with daisies gay,
And softly sang a roundelay,
Just as the tide was a-flowing.